Outlook 2021 – LBBW with its strategic orientation and comfortable capitalization in a good position

Strategic positioning of LBBW as best mittelstand-minded universal bank with four strategic cornerstones has proven itself – universal bank model plays to its strengths

In the ongoing development of our business focus the following points are in the foreground: Use of selective growth opportunities, consistent focus on profitability, stricter focus on costs and a sharpened risk policy

The other strategic cornerstones have gained even more relevance. We consistently work on the strategic development of Sustainability and Digitalization

In doing so, LBBW secures a sustainably stable positioning for customers, owners and employees and – combined with its comfortable capitalization – sees itself well positioned also for the ongoing challenges

For the whole year 2021 LBBW is expecting – based on current assumptions with continuing uncertainties related to the coronavirus – a consolidated profit before tax in the three digit million range and above the previous year

LBBW focusses its strategic targets on long-term profitability, solid capitalization and efficiency increase

All current SREP capital requirements still clearly exceeded

LBBW clearly exceeds SREP capital requirements even in the year of crisis

- LBBW's CET1 requirement of 9.39% clearly exceeded consisting of the SREP requirement of 8.73% plus countercyclical capital buffer and AT1 shortfall
- At the same time there was no need for utilizing temporary relief measures such as falling below the capital conservation buffer and the Pillar II Guidance

<sup>1</sup> For the sustainable capital management in the following years, the ECB's supervision furthermore expects the availability of further common equity Tier 1 capital according to Pillar II Guidance (P2G)

Stage 2 in part characterized by uncertainties in Automotive and economic risks from the corona pandemic, but declining again
