LBBW expanding its Project Finance activities

Jens Heil to head business in the DACH region and other European countries

LBBW accelerates the expansion of its Project Finance business area by filling a key management position in this context. Jens Heil is heading Project Finance in the Germany, Austria and Switzerland region and in other European countries.

A business management graduate, Heil (43) previously worked at LBBW's London location and aided the international expansion of Real Estate Finance as the Head of Risk Management. Before moving to London, Heil had already spent 15 years in project and infrastructure financing at various locations. "This experience means that he will deliver key stimulus for the expansion of our business," said Thomas Schulz, Head of Infrastructure and Transport Finance.
