Management Change at LBBW Subsidiary

Dominique Herold Succeeds Gabriele Greiner at German Centre GmbH

On 31 May 2022, Gabriele Greiner will leave the management of German Centre GmbH, a wholly owned subsidiary of LBBW. Dominique Herold was appointed to the management of German Centre GmbH on 1 December 2021. In line with well-organized succession planning, she is thus optimally prepared to take over from Gabriele Greiner. Michael Maurer remains Management Director.

“The German Centres offer significant added value in the range of services for our corporate clients from LBBW and savings banks. This is thanks to Gabriele Greiner and her extraordinary and successful work from the very beginning. On behalf of the Board of Managing Directors of LBBW and the entire German Centre Group around the world, I offer my warmest thanks and wish her all the best for the future,” says Michael Maurer, Global Head of Trade and Export Finance at LBBW and Management Director of German Centre GmbH.

Dominique Herold has led the German Centre Singapore since July 2020 and will continue in this position. Hailing from Stuttgart, she began as Head of Customer Relations at German Centre

Singapore in 2018. Before that, she worked in real estate management at the Schwarz Group in Neckarsulm and Bülow AG in Stuttgart. She attained an MBA (Management and Real Estate) at Nürtingen-Geislingen University (HfWU).

“I am delighted that Dominique Herold is to take over for me,” says Gabriele Greiner. “With her qualifications and long years of service in the German Centre Group, she is an expert at supporting German companies abroad in optimally managed German Centre buildings. I wish every success for her and the entire German Centre Group around the world.”
