

Statement by LBBW (Bank) on the UK Modern Slavery Act.

Introduction.

The UK Modern Slavery Act took effect at the end of October 2015 and now requires companies to report how they combat human trafficking and forced labor in their supply chain. Under Section 54 of the Act, all companies with an annual turnover in excess of GBP 36 million must submit a »Slavery and Human Trafficking« statement if they conduct at least some of their business in the UK – regardless of where the company's headquarters are located. Thus, German companies are also required to file reports under the Modern Slavery Act, showing how they combat forced labor, slavery and human trafficking in the company and in the supply chain.

LBBW.

- The LBBW Group offers the full range of products and services that a universal bank provides. The Group's business model focuses on customer business as reflected by its segments of Corporate Customers, Real Estate/Project Finance, Capital Markets Business and Private Customers/Savings Banks. The LBBW Group operates in its regional core markets of Baden-Württemberg, Rhineland-Palatinate and Saxony and selectively takes advantage of growth opportunities in attractive economic areas such as North-Rhine Westphalia, Bavaria and the greater Hamburg area. The business activities of LBBW (Bank) in the 2017 financial year were pooled under the umbrella of four brands – LBBW, BW-Bank, LBBW Sachsen Bank and LBBW Rheinland Pfalz Bank.
- Group companies for special products (leasing, factoring, asset management, real estate and equity investment finance) supplement the LBBW Group's portfolio of services. A global network of international locations and German Centres is also available to support customers with countryspecific expertise and financial solutions as well as with market entry solutions.

Sustainability at LBBW.

LBBW aims to consistently contribute to sustainable and balanced economic, environmental, and social development. For this purpose, the bank has adopted a comprehensive sustainability policy, setting out a framework for all business activities. The sustainability policy is further solidified by the »Principles and Guidelines for Implementing the LBBW Sustainability Policy and Goals.« It includes general principles such as compliance, human rights principles and biodiversity principles, along with the LBBW climate strategy as a basis for orientation. For more information, see www.LBBW.de/nachhaltigkeit.

LBBW has also devised a Code of Conduct, which aims to create a reliable, normative frame of reference or guidance for responsible action by each individual that satisfies the legal requirements and is in line with ethical and societal standards. For more information, see www.LBBW.de/code-of-conduct.

Compliance with our obligations under the Modern Slavery Act.

Our activities to promote and protect human rights include:

Topic	Description
Company policy
Commitment to the protection of human rights	To enforce its sustainability policy and sustainability goals, LBBW has defined principles and guidelines as a basis for orientation. Our commitment to the protection of human rights states, »As part of the international community, we are committed to the United Nations' Universal Declaration of Human Rights. [...]« See also www.LBBW.de/Menschenrechte .
Supply chain
Supplier registration	Activities with our suppliers are based on supplier registration. In order to be an approved supplier of LBBW, among other things the following questions about sustainability issues must be answered on LBBW's supplier portal (www.LBBW.de/Lieferantenregistrierung). The questions pertain to such topics as environmental and social management systems. Every supplier is additionally required to acknowledge the Sustainability Agreement for LBBW Suppliers when registering with LBBW and sign it when entering into a contract. This agreement compels our suppliers to comply with what we consider to be essential environmental and social criteria. Any supplier violating the social standards contained in the Sustainability Agreement (e.g., prohibition against human rights abuses, such as child labor) must accept this violation as grounds for termination of the Agreement without notice. We expect our suppliers to commit to taking responsibility for environmental, economic, social, and community issues in all areas of their business activities to the same degree as LBBW. The sustainability rules and ethical responsibility documented in our Code of Conduct are the guiding principles for all of our business relationships and transactions.
Central purchasing	Centrally organized purchasing operations and binding Bank-wide standards enable us to ensure that sustainability issues are factored into investment decisions and, in cases where several product alternatives with comparable quality and cost are available, the best product in terms of sustainability is chosen. Firstly, this enables us to guarantee that the manufacture and use of products at LBBW meets the highest sustainability standards possible. Secondly, it allows us to promote environmentally and socially aware policies and business practices by our business partners. The criteria specified in the »Sustainable Procurement and Award of Work« Work Instruction is applicable to purchases of non-IT products. We therefore do not purchase products made of tropical wood, produced using child labor, or manufactured under inhumane or inequitable working conditions. In addition to these exclusion criteria, there are also specific exclusion criteria that apply to individual product groups. More than 90% of the products and services we procure are from German suppliers.
Customer relationships
Guidelines for Financing	The Guidelines for Financing set the standard for lending: »When making lending decisions, we consider the key sustainability factors associated with projects to be financed, such as environmental impact, human rights and labor laws, and social value-added.« See also: www.LBBW.de/Leitplanken-Kreditgeschaef .
Audit processes relating to reputation and sustainability risks	We ensure through mandatory in-house review processes and a comprehensive set of rules that reputation and sustainability risks relating to the environment, society or ethics are identified, analyzed and assessed early in the process of deciding on extending credit such as export financing, corporate loans or project financing. This can result in LBBW rejecting such transactions or terminating business relationships. A key activity in this regard is the audit process for industry/country risks based on the industry/country matrix. This review entails researching how companies in industries considered particularly relevant in this regard (wood/paper, mining, crude oil / natural gas, and bioenergy) in certain countries deal with industry-specific sustainability issues. See the 2016 Sustainability Report www.LBBW.de/Nachhaltigkeitsbericht_2016 .
Policies on private client consulting	In our policies for private client consulting at BW Bank, we pledge that »We maintain respectful and tolerant conduct. Discrimination due to gender, nationality, ethnic background, sexual orientation, age, disability, religion or ideology will not be tolerated under any circumstances.« See also www.LBBW.de/Leitlinien-Privatkundenberatung .
Treatment of our employees
Co-determination and committee for disabled persons	Co-determination at LBBW is based on the State Employee Representation Act for Baden-Württemberg. Staff meetings are held regularly at LBBW's larger locations. Employees have the right to exercise the freedom of association and assembly throughout the Group. LBBW employees who hold severely disabled status are advised and represented by the General Representative Body for the Severely Disabled (GSBV - Gesamtschwerbehindertenvertretung) and five regional representative bodies for the severely disabled. See the 2016 Sustainability Report www.LBBW.de/Nachhaltigkeitsbericht_2016 .
Diversity	A diversity officer is assigned to supervise and support diversity and equal opportunity efforts at LBBW. According to a »Works Agreement on Protection from Discrimination and a Cooperative Environment in the Workplace,« employees who feel discriminated against may turn to the Staff Council, the representative for employees with disabilities, the responsible manager, the Social Services Department, or the complaints board. See the 2016 Sustainability Report www.LBBW.de/Nachhaltigkeitsbericht_2016 .
Training
	The e-learning tool »Fraud prevention and sustainability« and the tool for implementing the General Equal Treatment Act must be completed by all employees of LBBW. The e-learning tools include human rights issues.

Landesbank Baden-Württemberg

Our company's actions follow the principles of responsible, transparent corporate governance. Our sustainability policy plays a key role in this regard and is the foundation for long-term financial success and the trust of our clients, business partners, investors, employees, and the financial markets. This statement is made pursuant to Section 54 (1) of the Modern Slavery Act 2015. It was approved by the Board of Managing Directors on August 15, 2017 for the first time and re-approved for the 2017 financial year on May 4, 2018.
